Governor Yumi Hogan Annapolis Standing Solo Exhibition

Maryland governor's wife, Yuri Hogan, opens a solo exhibition in Annapolis next month.

The theme of 'Freedom of Nature' was opened on Thursday, May 4, and will be held at the Marino Hall in the Martino Gallery until June 10 at 'Breath of Dawn', 'A series of 25 coloring abstractions, including six of the "Melody of Nature" series and a "Symphony of Nature" series. The works are recent works of acrylic mixed with mixed media or submerged ink, which worked delicately on Korean paper.

"My works are abstract expressions of the harmony and harmony of nature. "We have included human beings as a part of nature, like soft winds, flowing water, twigs and leaves." Some of the works are memorable moments in which my mother and grandmother weave silk together in my life and childhood. And lines, "he said.

Mrs. Hogan, an advisor to the Korean American Artist Association in Washington, studied painting at the Maryland College of Art (MICA) and then worked as an assistant professor at the MICA after earning her master's degree in American painting from the American College of Art. Last year, she participated in 13 solo exhibitions and more than 50 groups including an invitation to the National Women's Museum in DC and an invitation to the Maryland Green Belt Federation.
