

'Glyph of My Heart'... Opening of the 43 Artist Exhibition

(한인사회)

① Griffith Gisun's exhibition begins. ② Yumi Hogan's 'Untitled 36'. ③ Kim's 'rest'. ④ 'Hope' of Lim Yun-sun. ⑤ Lee Kyu-jin's Lee Group & Carry On. ⑥ 'Jude Wilderness' by Lee Jung-joo.

A large group exhibition with 43 members of the Washington Korean Fine Arts Association (Chairman Baek Jung-hwa) will open today at the Maryland Hall Gallery in Annapolis.

The exhibition, entitled 'The Shape of my Heart', includes Maryland Governor's wife, Western artist Yumi Hogan, Kim Hong-ja, Lee Jung-joo, Kim Eun-jeon, Cho Hyun, Cha Jin-ho, and Jeong Sun-hee (An Arundel Community College). And 43 senior artists including Professor Kim Jin-cheol (Solesbury University) and young writers Lee Kyu-jin and Kim Da-sol.

At the exhibition, they present one recent piece from a variety of genres, including painting, sculpture, ceramics, metal crafts and mixed media.

Yumi Hogan used the colorful Untitled No. 36, which was made with Sumi ink on Hanji, and oil painter 'Jung Wilderness' depicting the desert that Western artist Lee Jung-ju saw during his pilgrimage to Israel. Painting 'Sim' and Baek Jung Hwa exhibit 'Moving Sculpture'. Lee Kyu-jin will show her oil painting 'Regroup & Carry On' and Lim Yoon-sun will show her 'Hope'.

Chairman Baek Jung-hwa said, "This group exhibition shows the disparity and reality of subject consciousness seen between human imagination and reality. Based on self-reflection and cold observation, he expresses his inner self with various materials, colors and forms."

Professor Jung Eun-mi (Montgomery College), who planned and presented the exhibition, said, "This exhibition is like a portrait of us and a confession of self. You can see the inner identity of the artists."

The opening reception, which will last for two months until August 24, starts at 5:30 pm on 27th Thursday.

Venue The Galleries at Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts, Chaney Gallery, 801 Chase Street, Annapolis, MD 21401

Inquiry hmaagw@gmail.com

YouRidrite

< Chung >