

Enter article 2017/10/04 08:36

인쇄하기

"East and West of the United States embraces the sea,"

The works of emotion of Korean artists in Washington area are unfolded in the sea.

The Washington, DC artist association (President Lee Yang-hee) will hold a membership group exhibition from Friday, December 6 to Sunday, June 6 at the Thaler Gallery in the Art League Ocean City Arts Center in Ocean City, Maryland.

The exhibition, organized by Professor Kim Jin-Chul, who is a member of the MMA and a professor at the University of Salisbury, will present an exhibition entitled "East Meets West," which focuses on Western and Oriental paintings, calligraphy, sculpture, metalwork, 21 works will be exhibited.

In this exhibition, which is a reinterpretation of the theme based on Korean emotions and cultural backgrounds, the exhibition is composed of Mrs. Yumi Hogan, the wife of Maryland governor, Kim Kwang Ho, Kim Myung Hee, Kim Eunjeon, Kim Hongjae, Kim Byeongim, Kim Jin Cheol, Park Suk Kyung, Lee In - Sook, Lee Jung Ju, Oh Jeong Sook, Oh Jin Soon, Yoo Soo Jae, Jong Jong Lim, Jung Sun Hee, Jung Ok Ji, Jeong Hye Jeon,

'Inside Energy II'

Yang said, "The exhibition, which will be held for the first time in Ocean City, is expected to display works in a space surrounded by the sea, so I hope that it will attract more people's emotions."

The opening reception will be held from 5 pm to 7 pm on Friday.

▷ Contact: 703-318-7163, hongikartstudio@gmail.com

▷ Address: 502 94th st, Ocean City, MD 21843

Jin Min-jae reporter chin.minjai@koreadaily.com